WE LOVE ...

Fascinating Flavor

DELRAY BEACH Garlic ice cream, anyone? Sample all kinds of deliciously earthy dishes during Garlic Fest, Jan. 29-31. Recipes, competitions and entertainment make it a big stinkin' deal. dbg garlicfest.com

DADE CITY Size of a large olive, look of an orange, hint of ... well, something vaguely citrus. The Kumquat Festival, Jan. 30, celebrates this odd sweet-tart fruit that's best eaten whole. dadecitychamber.org

FELLSMERE They really do taste like chicken. The Frog Leg Festival, Jan. 21-24 at the city's Old School, promises generous portions of the Southern delicacy many foodies find simply "ribbiting." froglegfestival.com

ESSENTIAL EXHIBIT ...

For many 1970s kids, Saturday morning cartoons were their first exposure to positive black TV characters. "Funky Turns 40," opening Feb. 23 at the Pensacola Museum of Art, presents original drawings from many of those animated shows. pensacolamuseum.org

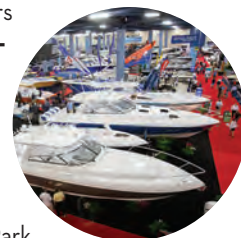

FESTIVAL FOCUS ...

On the rugged southwest Florida coast, seafood is a daily source of sustenance. The annual Everglades Seafood Festival, Feb. 12-14 in Everglades City, is a delicious sampling of coastal cuisine that also benefits local charity. evergladesseafoodfestival.org

DON'T MISS ...

For owners and dreamers alike, the Miami International Boat Show is an opportunity to see the latest and greatest vessels and accessories. The Feb. 11-15 event at Miami Marine Stadium Park & Basin includes seminars, demonstrations and simulations. miamiboatshow.com

MADE IN FLORIDA ...

Bottle openers

After watching a family member painfully struggle to open plastic bottles and pull-tab cans, Pablo Corredor was inspired to do something about it. He invented a lightweight device to give users more power than their fingers alone can provide. Produced in Coral Gables, Corredor's Magic Opener (available online) adjustably grips tops and makes refreshing beverages easier to enjoy. magicopener.com
